The Professional Member is a CH&LA member level offered only to management employees of member lodging properties. It is designed to give you direct access to CH&LA information about the lodging industry. Professional members receive all benefits of a regular member but do not have voting rights. The membership stays with the property, should you relocate.

Benefits of membership include:

- Quarterly InnQiurer Newsletter
- Emails directly to you related to industry news and updates
- Conference and meeting registration information
- Educational seminar information
- Access to “members only” section of the website.

Annual Membership Dues: $ 25.00 per year
